DOWN TO EARTH

The play starts with two angels, Agnes and Wilfred, coming down to Earth along with Pilone, a kind of heavenly hitch-hiker who only has one wing and is being towed by Agnes even though she doesn't want to tow him.

The two angels are supposed to pick up two elderly souls, Augusta Applegate, a wealthy and sarcastic spinster, and Herman Howell, a kindly, retired sailor. Herman is ready to go; but Augusta has accumulated so much wealth, and she doesn't want to part with it.

Orpha Teel and Millie Broomsley are two nieces of Augusta who try to persuade her to give them her money. Orpha is a widow and is trying to get a rich husband for her daughter, Ruthie. Millie has an inventor-husband, Baxter, who has invented a thimble that threads needles and who needs money to invest. June, the daughter of Millie and Baxter, is wanting to marry Richard White and borrow $1,000 from Augusta so they can buy into a photography business.

Pilone manages to make Augusta give her money away and marry Herman. He also causes Ruthie to fall in love with Robert Hanley; and he falls in love with Diana, Augusta's maid. Diana becomes an angel causing Pilone to acquire his other wing and they all ascend back to heaven.

Music

Senior Band

The 1956-57 marching band season began on August 27 with our director, Mr. Sellman, and our new majorette, Karen Anderson. We performed between the half of our first home football game which was on September 14.

The annual Football Jamboree was held Sept. 17 with seven bands participating. The bands marched from the courthouse to the football field. Each played their school song when they were introduced. The numbers the seven bands played were: "The Iowa Band Law," "Imperial," and the "Star Spangled Banner."

We held our annual homecoming September 28. The numbers we played during half time were: "In My Merry Oldsmobile," "Smiles," "The School Song," and "Monterey."

At the Manson game on October 12, we, led by Karen Anderson, did our contest routines.

On October 13 at one o'clock the band left the school house by bus for Sac City, and performed our marching routines shortly after we arrived. The band received a III rating.

On October 22 our marching band together with bands from Albert City and Rolfe marched from the courthouse to the speakers stand for the dedication of Highway 3.

The last performance of the marching band was at the Lake City football game on October 31. This was the last time that six seniors marched. They were: Gary Braley, Kenneth Anderson, Allan Frevert, Ruth Niemand, Irene Vosberg, and Berniece Waterman.

CLASS POEM

OUR FUTURE

Our future is before us,
As from school days we depart.
We wish to say a few words
To all, before our journeys start.

We wish to thank our teachers
For their guidance, help, and praise.
And hope that we can use
Our learned intelligence in future days.

We wish an abundance of luck
To the classes that follow behind,
In hoping they will enjoy
All the memories on our mind.

Our school days won't be forgotten.
All the fun and work we recall.
For they have made our school days
Exciting and gay for all

School days now we leave.
Our memories we now relate.
You may forget us-but remember our motto,
"The way is hard, but the prize is great."
